NASHVILLE SHAKESPEARE FESTIVAL'S 'SHAKESPEARE ALLOWED!'
READING OF THE COMEDY OF ERRORS

NASHVILLE, Tenn. – Feb. X, 2009 – The Nashville Shakespeare Festival's ongoing program, Shakespeare Allowed!, will feature The Comedy of Errors for the month of March.

The program Shakespeare Allowed! brings participants together each month to read aloud one of Shakespeare's works. The goal is to read all his works beginning with the first play he wrote and ending with his last. The program began last October, and will continue once a month over the next three years.

The Comedy of Errors is scheduled to be read on Sat., March 7. from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. at the downtown main library. The comedic play tells the story of two sets of identical twins that were accidentally separated at birth.

The Nashville Shakespeare Festival invites everyone to join the reading circle, as an out-loud reader or as a listener. Shakespeare Allowed! is a free event, open to the public.

Other scheduled programs include:

- The Taming of the Shrew, April 4
- The Two Gentleman of Verona, May 2
- Love's Labor's Lost, June 6

About Nashville Shakespeare Festival

The mission of the Nashville Shakespeare Festival is to educate and entertain the Mid-South community through professional Shakespearean experiences. The Festival accomplishes this primarily through its public productions of Shakespeare in the Park in the summer and Winter Shakespeare at The Troutt Theater and its educational workshops for young people and businesses.
